

The Midwest Finance Association and Quarterly Journal of Finance and Accounting are pleased to announce a Call For Papers in Corporate Finance. We are interested in both theoretical and applied papers. Papers included in this Special Issue, will be selected from those presented at the 2008 Midwest Finance Association Conference February 27-March 1, 2008, San Antonio, Texas.

Preferred topics include, but are not limited to:

- Asset sales and Corporate Focus
- Mergers and Acquisitions
- Diversification Benefits
- Corporate Valuation metrics
- Bond risks and Equity returns
- IPOs
- Privately Held Companies
- Corporate Buybacks and Performance
- Dividend Policy
- Executive Compensation
- CEO succession plans
- Director Independence and Performance

All authors with accepted papers at the 2008 Midwest Finance Association Conference, whose papers fit any of the above areas of interest, regardless of paper track, are asked to consider submitting their papers for publication. Requests must be made to any of the issue editors by March 17, 2008, and marked

MFA-Quarterly Journal of Finance and Accounting
Corporate Finance

You can of course upload a revised copy of your paper on the program conference website, www.mfa-2008.com and simply let the editors know the reference number of your paper. Select conference papers will appear in a subsequent volume of the Quarterly Journal of Finance and Accounting after clearing the journal's normal review process. Further program details are available on the MFA conference website.
